Dear []

In "The New York Times" of December 15, 1948 I read a column treating of an article which was to appear in the January issue of "Foreign Affairs" and to contain an exhaustive analysis of Soviet tactics.

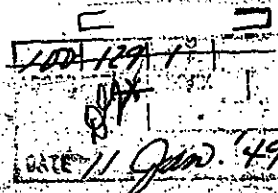

The column reminded me that I wrote an essay on the same subject when I was still in Germany. Now I have brought that essay up to date and submit it to you with the remark that its contents are not influenced by the article in "Foreign Affairs" which I could not yet obtain.

I am very anxious to learn your opinion on the conclusions I have arrived at. If you agree with them, the only reward I am asking for is to lend me the respective issue of "Foreign Affairs" which, I am sure, you dispose of.

Very sincerely yours

Gustav Hilger
